a note ...

I think I was 14 when I saw the movie The Wedding Planner and dreamed about planning and decorating weddings. After obsessively planning my own backyard wedding for about a year, I decided that I really wanted to continue to involve myself in any way I could. We didn't have the means to hire a planner or decorator, but I didn't care because I loved every second of the process. My goal is to provide brides with a service that will help alleviate some of the wedding stress at an affordable price. I offer full event wedding planning, day of coordinating, event decorating, and handmade custom signs. I truly love what I do.
